

Khaled Nashar

Khaled cycled 100km from London to Brighton on Sunday 6th September 2020, raising funds for the work of Bermondsey Welcomes Refugees and also raising awareness of the Community Sponsorship Scheme.

He has a master's degree in International planning and development from Cardiff university. He previously worked for the United Nations focusing on delivering life-saving assistance to refugees and internally displaced people in Syria, west and central Africa.

In London, he works as a monitoring and evaluation officer for a UK-based project that facilitate Syrian refugees' access to higher education in Lebanon and Jordan.

